Dear Sam:

We have two new documents available to us:

1. The Rylander Symposium
2. Principles of Public Policy Relevant to Smoking
by Littlechild and Wiseman

I am very anxious to know what your plans are for using these documents. It would seem to me that they both have direct application on our "Workplace" project. In the case of Rylander, however, I have to believe that the application can be much broader.

In any event, I'd appreciate knowing what your plans are.

Cordially,

C. A. Tucker
